Billing Information:

Basic Fees:

Payment is due on the first of every month for that month. Late fees will be applied to any account over 30 days past due and credit card on file will be charged for the amount due. Accounts must be current before attending horse shows or marketing a horse for sale. Your prompt payment is appreciated.

Full training includes board, full training, and 1 lesson per week. Board includes all feed, turnout, and blanketing.

Part time training is only available during the off season on finished horses that have been in training long term. It will be priced according to how much riding the specific horse requires.

Lessons are $75 per lesson and average 45-60 minutes.

Virtual lessons are available at $75 per lesson. You send videos of yourself riding, we will review them and then we discuss with you what you're issues and what you can do to improve. Contact us for details. Medicine, supplements, supplies, vet, and farrier will be bought and used as needed and billed accordingly.

Show Fees:

A deposit of approximately half the total cost of the show will be charged on your invoice prior to each show. This deposit is due before stalls will be reserved. The balance for the show will be applied to the invoice following the show.

Hauling is $.75 per mile plus a fuel surcharge. The surcharge is calculated by dividing the total cost of fuel by the number of horses hauled. Horses that show with us but are hauled by someone else will be charged $.35 per mile travel charge per horse. We will still haul all the supplies and tack for these horses and set up their stalls at the show.

Day fees are $75 per day and charged from the day we leave until the day we return. We will discount day fees for horses that are taken for experience and not being shown. Major shows will have a pre set fee which can be calculated as soon as we know the number of horses going. Hotel/lodging costs will be split evenly between the number of customers with horses at the show. If we take an RV we charge a flat fee of $200 per night.

Tack Stalls, Sponsorship, Golf Cart, Extra Feed, Stall Setup, Extra Help, Meals, Etc. will all be divided by the number of horses.

All winnings will be split 50/50 after deducting the entry fee.

If we have to use one of our show saddles on your horse it will be $50 per day and any other items such as bridles, pads, tails, etc will be charged $25 per item per day.

Advertising and Sales:

Ad or sale pictures and videos are available for $150 plus any banding or braiding cost.

Ad design is available for $200 plus $50 for each additional edit.

We will not take any horse in with the sole purpose of marketing them for sale. For any horse to be marketed for sale it must be in training for a minimum of 2 months and all accounts must be current. You must provide us with the original papers and signed transfer. They must have a current coggins and a basic set of xrays. All sales will be charged a minimum of 10% commission. If a horse sells after leaving our care to anyone previously introduced by us or sold with the use of our pictures/videos, a commission is owed to us. All horses sold will be paid directly to us. We will deduct commission as well as any other money owed and then pay you the balance.
